About NK Gallery

NK Gallery LLC (NKG) was established in 2010. NKG is located in the vibrant SOWA (South Of Washington Street) art district of Boston. NKG creates and presents exhibitions that mirror the diversity of the world and aims at giving voice to the pluralism that continually enriches contemporary art and ideas. Our artists embody a broad spectrum of ideas, approaches, and materials that keeps art dynamic and alive. We value the interdisciplinary spectrum that exists in video, painting, drawing, printmaking, photography, performance, film, sculpture, and sound. It is our mission to further contemporary art by giving equal value to the mind and the hand, valuing artistic labor and not separating the mind from the body.
